Publication Date March 2019

This is the fourth volume of David's definitive publication on Bearded Collie Champions.

This book became, in the words of one famous breeder, "her Beardie Bible".

The first publication covers the early years 1959 - 1991 and sold out, although copies can be found on internet auction sites fetching up to £300.

The second volume covers the years 1992 - 1997 and again is sold out.

The third volume covers 1998 - 2008 and is in full colour celebrating 50 years of CC's with a lot of facts and information as well as the usual format that is so easy to navigate. There are still some copies available of this unique publication available at a one off discounted price with this order only.
